8.3 John Tansley (Beacon Hill FC)

Pre 2004 Season, John set about creating an O/35's team to play for Beacon Hill. He got a team going that year and then stared to get the ball rolling for more teams in that division for the following years to come.

In 2008 John officially took the committee role of O/35's coordinator after basically doing it for the previous 4 years and he held this role until 2012.

From 2013 until now John has continued as an assistant to the various O/35 coordinators and has put his hand up to assist again next year.

In his early years on the committee, John has helped run several 6-a-side comps for Beacon Hill to help raise funds for the club. With this experience John then started to run and still continues to run a Pink preseason comp to raise funds for cancer.

Amongst, especially our Beacon Hill Senior teams, John quite often runs other functions to help raise funds for various other charities as well as during the playing seasons. If there is a Football social function on, John will find a way to raise funds for charity at it somehow.

Several years ago John started to focus on getting defibrillators to the fields of Beacon Hill and with this project well underway, he then also helped create a group amongst the MWFA clubs in getting defibs at all the senior grounds in the area and finally secured getting the ZAP stand at Cromer Park.

There is no one else quite as fitting to receive this award, Congratulations John Tansley!

14.20 Change 24:

Proposal: That there be unlimited borrowing of players from U18 Age Group to the Premier League.

Discussion: This is a proposal to amend the constitution regarding the borrowing eligibility of players to Premier League sides in the men's division.

As per the current ruling a player may not be borrowed more than 4 times in a season. We would like to present the following case for there to be unlimited borrowing from U18s to Premier League. The reasons for proposing this amendment are as follows:

• At the beginning of every season, Premier League sides are required to take several players to try and account for injury, illness, vacation and work; as well as numerous other commitments faced by amateur footballers. The availability of players varies and clubs take between 32 and 42 players per season in the attempt to ensure they are never left short. If a club takes only 32 players and they have an unfortunate season regarding injuries/illness etc, they are left short and are limited by the players they can bring in to support them. If a club takes a 38 - 42 players, they not only limit opportunities young players have to experience Premier League football (though not ready for it full time yet) they also are faced with a situation of having to leave out several players every week if no injuries/illnesses occur. If clubs could borrow freely from the U18s it would create a pathway for young players to be given opportunities as well as older players who are important mentor figures for young players to be able to play without having to worry about what happens when a PL side must leave out 8 players on a Saturday because they have taken a squad of 40 and not had any injuries.

• The second is that it creates a pathway for clubs to be able to bring players in to their flagship sides again without having to register them full time in the squads. If a club has a PL team and an AL2 team, and the PL side needs to borrow players because of a shortage, the best U18 player should be called upon to be given an opportunity to play up as the idea is for them to be able to play with them in the coming years. They should not be limited to a certain number of appearances as that is limiting their opportunities to develop. It may not happen to every club every season, but having seen towards the back end of the 2017 season how many players are being borrowed by PL teams, there is clearly an issue.

It is my understanding that clubs have abused the borrowing system in the past however I don't see that as a possibility now because of the club wide gradings given to players A7(f) and (i), clubs would not be allowed to register players in ALs as well as PLs to circumvent the grading system. The benefits of changing the rule would include

- Allowing U18s to have Premier League experience without having to register them in the squad full time. They might not be ready for the physicality of the league or might have difficulty balancing HSC or schoolwork and football.
- Allow players doing well in ALs to be given opportunities in Premier League with the vision of being promoted to the squad in the future.

There are of the possibilities of problems however as I see it Clubs with a team in AL1s and PLs cannot get their AL1s team promoted thus would not be inclined to drop PL players down for the purposed of winning AL1s if they registered their players in AL1s and played them in PLs every week. Similarly, PL teams can get relegated so clubs would be even less inclined to play players down simply to win a trophy.
